DOUBLE CROSS BALLOTS THROWN OUT AS ILLEGAL

Prothonotary Contest
Decided in Favor
of Lewis

WINNER BY 13 VOTES

Examiner Witherspoon Hands Down Lengthy Opinion
in the Case

Arthur R. Witherspoon, examiner in the prothonotary contest of Joseph W. Martin of California who was the Keystone-Democratic candidate for the office, against Dr. A. V. Lewis of Donora the present incumbent, filed his report Monday morning a voluminous document. The outcome of the contest gives Dr. Lewis a lead of 13 votes in place of 12, as shown by the official count following the election.

The principal point of contention was over the "double cross" ballots, and these the examiner following a lengthy opinion, concludes, are illegal and void and cannot be counted for Joseph W. Martin. There were 53 of the "double cross" ballots to be passed upon by the examiner. The boxes from 32 voting districts were brought in, examined and upon the contested ballots in these boxes the examiner passed fully. In these 32 districts the examination gives Lewis 1,908 votes and Martin 2,413. The examiner's report gives Martin's total vote in the county 7,739 and Lewis' vote as 7,752, making Lewis' plurality 13, as against 12 as shown in the official count.

The costs in the contest are divided as follows: Petitioners' costs, which includes witness fees, etc., $168.82; respondent's costs, including the same $27.30. The general costs were as follows: Arthur R. Witherspoon, examiner, $850; John W. McDowell and H. F. Ward, clerks to the examiner, $70 each; R. G. Lutton, sheriff, bringing in the ballot boxes, etc., $75; H. E. McCutcheon, guardian of the out-boxes, $64; William H. McEnroe, stenographer, $62 and Miss Margaret Patterson, stenographer, $142.39.

The totals are as follows: Petitioners, $168.82; respondent, $27.30, and general $1,453.51.

The contest was started in January, 32 ballot boxes were brought in and opened and examined, the respondent not bringing in any boxes of the number signified in his answer. The case was closed on the testimony about the middle of April, and since that time the examiner has been busy getting his data in shape for preparing his report.

The outcome of the contest is no surprise, the only question being the decision on the "double cross" ballots. The examiner follows the decisions of several judges throughout the state on this question.

NORTH CHARLEROI BOND ISSUE SOLD

Western Reserve Investment Company Purchaser--Ordinance to be Drawn Up Regulating Water Company Matter

Two matters of the utmost importance to North Charleroi borough were taken up and acted upon by the council there Monday night at a special meeting. One was that of the sale of the $14,000 bond issue and the other was that of the contention with the Charleroi Water company over the laying of a 20 inch line through the borough to supply Monessen with water.

An ordinance was passed for the sale of the $14,000 issue of bonds. Then the bid of the Western Reserve Investment company was accepted. This company bid par, with $100 premium and agreed to pay for the printing of the bonds and for the legal advice.

On Thursday evening at an adjourned meeting an effort will be made to hire an engineer to prepare plans and specifications for paving and sewerage work to be done in North Charleroi borough.

The matter of contention with the Charleroi Water company was discussed from every angle. Last week the company started laying a line through North Charleroi by which it was to supply Monessen with filtered water from the Charleroi filtration plant. Hardly had they started until work was stopped by Burgess Harry W. Scott. The result of the discussion by council was that the water committee, consisting of Neulung, Gaskill and Myers, was instructed to prepare an ordinance conjunctively with the water company and North Charleroi Borough solicitor, D. M. McCloskey. This ordinance will be presented Thursday and will probably govern the action of the water company.

MAY INSTITUTE SUIT AGAINST COUNCILMEN

Monongahela Trouble Brought to Head Through Damage Done by Storm to One of the Streets

A case that it is stated is without parallel from Monongahela is expected to find its way into the county courts as a result of the devastating storm of Sunday afternoon. The trouble arises over the alleged actions of members of the city council in regard to Fourth street, Monongahela, where it is asserted heavy damages were sustained Sunday afternoon.

The street committee which is composed of William Isaac, Thomas Gregg, James DeWalt, Bernhard McElhatton and Frank Underwood some time ago removed the water tables from Fourth street to Jackson street without the consent of council. The committee did this, thinking that the city would improve Fourth street on the one side while the Monongahela and Ellsworth street car company which is expected to construct a line along the street would improve the other side.

Sunday during the flood the curb on the one side was undermined and damaged. A tree was uprooted and fell across the street blocking traffic.

Fourth street is one of the leading thoroughfares of the city it is said. The merchants use this street more than any other. As a result of the damage to the street an indignation meeting was held Sunday evening and $250 was raised to prosecute members of council. Citizens who claim that $1,000 can be raised if necessary maintain that the members of council should be responsible personally for the damage done. However no action will be taken until after Thursday evening at which time council will meet.

WRITES LETTER TO COUNTY WORKERS

President W. S. James Sends Out Invitation to Convention

WANTS PEOPLE TO COME

Sunday School workers from all over this and adjoining counties will be tendered a most hearty welcome Thursday by Charleroi people when the first day's session of the Seventeenth Annual County Sunday School convention will be held. President W. S. James of Charleroi district has written the following circular letter: "In behalf of the Charleroi district I wish to extend to the Sabbath schools of Washington county, all the workers in the Sabbath Schools and the churches, as well as all who may wish to come from adjoining cities and counties, a very cordial invitation to the Seventeenth Annual convention of the Washington County Sabbath School association, which will be held in Charleroi June 20 and 21.

"The district officers as well as the citizens of Charleroi have made great preparations for entertaining a great crowd on this occasion. The latching is out. Our homes are wide open to receive you. You will be welcomed. Come yourself. Bring your friends with you. Get an inspiration. Be a live wire for Christ, so when you go home, you can kindle a flame in

TO TAKE TOUR OF EUROPE

Charleroi Party to Spend
Summer Visiting Old
World Points

GO TO FRANCE FIRST

For a visit in the old world Mr. and Mrs. George W. Might and the latter's father John Monier will leave next week for France. Mrs. Mary Aprenche Mr. Monier's sister, and daughter Miss Jeanne of St. Etienne, France, who have been visiting in the United States for a number of months will return with the party.

The point to which the party of five will go first will be to St. Etienne. This is the former home of Mr. Monier, as well as the home of Mrs. Aurenche and her daughter. Mr. Monier will probably remain there during the greater part of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Might are planning an extensive tour throughout Europe, that will take practically all summer. They will tour France, Ireland, England, and Scotland, of the British Isles, visiting the largest cities and seeing the most noted sights. They will go to Belgium, Holland and then to Germany, where they will spend considerable time visiting along the Rhine and seeing the numerous sights. From Germany they will go to Lucerne, Switzerland and will probably climb the Alps. If there is sufficient time they will go to Venice and other old Italian cities to see some of the most noted scenes of the world.

It is not impossible that Mr. and Mrs. Might will go to Sweden also, to witness the Olympic games, and be numbered among the American enthusiasts there. These games will constitute the principal athletic event of years over the world. America has a team entered.

ANXIOUS BUYERS BUSY

Green Stuff Goes Rapidly—Farmers and Producers
Pleased

The second date of the Charleroi curb market showed a decided gain. More hucksters and gardeners appeared with produce to sell, while the number of patrons seemed to also be more numerous. Several wagons containing farm and garden produce were on hand, while a number of men and women with boxes and baskets of garden truck had improvised market stalls on the curbs.

Just now the chief obstacle seems to be a lack of variety of produce. Lettuce and onions seem to be more plentiful and it would be these products if any that would constitute a surplus. In addition to these products others offered were green peas, radishes, carrots, cherries, gooseberries and currants. As it is yet early in the season, which has been backward, the available amount is rather limited.

Thus far a number of farmers have been loth to come to the curb market as some of them believe that the market will cheapen their produce and that they will get better prices selling to individuals or by huckstering them around the country. This is a matter which will regulate itself, and when the curb market is once firmly established the demand will regulate the prices in this as in everything else.

Thus far several farmers and hucksters have refrained from going to the curb market under the impression that it will take them longer to dispose of their produce than to peddle it out. The fallacy of this was shown in a single instance. One market gardener would not stop at the curb market last Saturday because, as he said, he did not want to waste time in sitting there all day waiting for customers, so he peddled his stuff which took him until 1 o'clock to dispose of it. This morning he came rather late to town and was induced to stop at the curb market. The result was that he was all set out and gone by 10 o'clock, where it had taken him until 1 o'clock Saturday to sell less stuff than he has this morning.

"I only wish," he said, "that I had brought ten bushels of peas instead of four bushels, as I know I could have sold them."

Another woman with cherries to sell this morning would not stop at the curb market, thinking it would take too long to dispose of her stock. She finally stopped at Seventh street, where many patrons of the curb market overhauled her and in a short time bought her out. She was told that had she stopped at the curb market early this morning she would have sold out in an hour's time. The great rush for stuff is early in the morning and hucksters will not only save much time in disposing of their stuff there, but will also avoid much unnecessary work and trouble.

From early in the morning until late in the forenoon a steady stream

THE CURB MARKET.

It is now up to the people of Charleroi as to whether or not the curb market becomes an established institution of the town. The second trial shows a decided gain in the number of those who have produce to sell, while the patrons seem to be also increasing.

Like all other business enterprises, a project must grow and be developed. The idea is a new one for the community, but there is no doubt of its success if both parties interested —sellers and patrons—will persist in their efforts and exercise patience.
Because of the lack of sufficient opportunity truck farming and gardening have not been developed in this community to the extent that occasion warrants, but with the curb market firmly established there is no reason why a new impetus should not be given to this industry in the future.

Every housewife and citizen interested in the reduction of the cost of living should lend every possible encouragement to the curb market. It will patronize the curb sellers their resources will expand and in due time a greater variety of products will be offered. Just now there is not much produce available, but more will come as the season advances. The stuff brought for sale has the advantage of being fresh, and there is no commission man's profit to pay. To establish a curb market in Charleroi will be like casting bread upon the waters.
It will return after many days.

CORRECT MEDICAL DOPE.

In these days of medical quackery and charlatanism, the following from the New York Sun as to how the medical profession could serve the public by giving correct information through the medium of the newspapers were they not prevented by an absurd code of so-called ethics, is most timely. The Sun says:

"A recent article in the Medical Times discusses the medical education of the public in an intelligent and a practical manner. The opinion is expressed that practitioners do not take the interest in the medical education of the public that necessity demands.
The editor, who has advocated a publicity bureau for this purpose without success has now engaged the services of a trained writer on subjects that may be profitably imparted to the lay reader. How he expects to reach him through the columns of that journal is not explained.

"Judging from the first of these articles their publication in a popular newspaper would be serviceable. The writer is frank in stating that one difficulty of reaching the public through the lay press is a jealous regard for what physicians call medical ethics.
In a refreshingly ironical vein he comments on the painful fact that a confere who would publish a signed article in a newspaper would arouse suspicion of 'questionable if not quite satisfactory information.' In its pursuit of accurate information on medical news The Sun has often encountered this singular objection of doctors to appear in authorized interviews, which we adopt in order to avoid the imposition upon our readers of absurd and sensational medical items. This unjustifiable spirit is discreditable to a profession the members of which are in other regards self-sacrificing and altruistic. As a result of this exclusiveness medical information is largely derived by the public from persons whose chief qualification is notoriety.

"A writer of sensational books de-scants learnedly upon dietetics; an actress noted for beauty advises on skin troubles; a man noted for muscular prowess teaches how nervous people may obtain relief, etc. The Medical Times avers truly that 'people have quite as much interest in their livers and kidneys as in their hearts and their souls' and that they will satisfy that interest by misin-formation if truth is not at their command. It is an error, however, to assume that 'the public health educator never can be convincing from under cover.' There is no reason, it would seem, why a newspaper which has earned the confidence of its readers by its treatment of other topics, by reason of a staff versed in special subjects, may not include in its editorial staff a competent medical man to inform them on preventing disease.

"This has been the policy of The Sun."

ELECTRIC SPARKS

What chance has an ordinary baseball game these days?

We all feel hateful at the money getter until "we're him."

Being as popular as Roosevelt might mean a lot of things.

There are those who can yet remember the 1907 panic with a shiver.

It is customary to hold the convention in Chicago because it is the windy city.

The kind of jokes we don't believe in carrying too far is the kind that is on us.

A person wouldn't think it but there is actually to be a vice president nominated.

Small boys are in favor of clubs only when their mothers or fathers go to attend them, not when they attend to them.

It's a good thing that the convention is being held this week, for the joke smiths have about run out of jokes about it.

John D. says he was 30 years old before he had accumulated a thousand dollars. He has a lot of our records beaten at that.

If Woodrow Wilson is nominated by the Democrats it will be a vindication of the allegation that educators never get anywhere.

Politicians can show those knights of the Round Table a few things they never thought of when it comes to ar-moring themselves.

Cummins is not at Chicago they say.

Probably he came to the wise conclusion that he would save money if he would stay away.

There is a well founded belief among some that the man who spends all his time trying to find out how to be broad minded never succeeds.

Uncle Joe Cannon has reached the conclusion that he couldn't be of any use at the National convention. As a lost politician Uncle Joe stills knows a lot.

Charleroi folks who have been arranging for that Sunday School convention here can appreciate what it means for the Chicago people to take care of that little affair they have out there.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

In Chicago just now, as every one knows, the interesting event of nominating a Republican candidate for President is in progress. The convention meets at noon today, and while it is possible that a nomination may be made before adjournment it taken for the day, such a proceeding is not expected. As a matter of fact the side lights of the great gathering where is assembled the country's greatest statesmen and politicians, affords the comedy side of the convention, preparatory to the impending struggle which promises to become tragic before it ends—to some at least. Consequently the pressing needs of the hour at Chicago seem to be the personal interests of the delegates and visitors, who for the most part according to press dispatches seem to be devoting their time to finding a place to sleep.

As is well known, the city that gets a national political convention is the one that pays the biggest guarantee.
Chicago, presumably, paid in the neighborhood of $100,000 for the Republican convention this year. This fund, as Charleroi people well know by experience, is collected from merchants, hotels, saloons, business firms, railroads and other interests. The fund is used for expenses by the Republican national committee and if a balance is left over it goes into the campaign chest. This is how the Republican convention came to be held in Chicago—the city offered the biggest guarantee fund.

A word or two about the charges of the hotels. Many of the owners and managers have subscribed to the guarantee fund. They have about a week in which to reap the reward for their generosity. And do they reap?
Yes, they reap.

The price for an average room is $20 a day without food, and this whether you have one or four persons in it. The corridors of the hotels at night when the convention is not in session are jammed to suffocation.

Everywhere is tittle-tattle and gossip, all conversations are steeped in politics, and you hear the politics of Hawaii and Porto Rico and the Philippines discussed in practical fashion.
If you want to know the magnitude of the country in which you live, to become aware of its diversified and gigantic interests, to broaden your mind as to the greatness of its resources, to become familiar with many of the keenest intellects of the nation, to grasp the reserve force of a people in its final reckoning with political demagogues and to become acquainted with the solid foundations on which this republic rests, just attend either of the great national political conventions this year.

The city which secures a national convention by guaranteeing a fund for the expenses of the national committee is usually allotted one-third of the seats in the convention hall. The tickets go to the subscribers in the guarantee fund and their friends. The most valuable ticket to the greatest opera at home or abroad does not compare with the value the residents of the convention city put upon these tickets. They mark social and business distinction. They are a passport to local political prominence.

The amount of rum consumed in the hotels and clubs at a national convention is prodigious. Yet there is little or no drunkenness. It is a happy holiday for many. With the residents of the convention city it is a time for genial and whole souled hospitality.
There are luncheons and dinners and theatre parties daily and nightly. It is a time for political intrigue mingled with genial good fellowship.

The wives and women relatives of the delegates are proud of them and many of the men, believing themselves to be political Warwicks, have an indescribable chestiness. Yet it is all excusable, for are they not President makers or would-be President makers?

NERVOUS DESPONDENT WOMEN

Find Relief in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound —Their Own Statements
So Testify.

Plateau, Pa.—"When I wrote to you first I was troubled with female weakness and backache, and was so nervous that I would cry at the least noise, it would startle me so. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies, and I don't have any more crying spells. I sleep sound and my nervousness is better.
I will recommend your medicines to all suffering women."

—Mrs. MARY HALSTEAD, Plateau, Pa., Box 98.

Here is the report of another genuine case, which still further shows that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon.

Walcott, N. Dakota.—"I had inflammation which caused pain in my side, and my back ached all the time. I was so blue that I felt like crying if any one even spoke to me. I took Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I began to gain right away. I continued its use and now I am a well woman."

A MEASURE OF MERIT

Charleroi Citizens Should Weigh
Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence.
Convincing evidence in Charleroi.
Is not the testimony of strangers.
But the endorsement of Charleroi people.

That's the kind of proof given here
The statement of a Charleroi citizen.

Mrs. W. L. Evans, 104 Lookout Ave., Charleroi, Pa., says: "Several years ago a member of my family complained of a dull pain in the small of the back and difficulty with the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills were used and proved to be beneficial that when the person referred to recently began to suffer from kidney trouble, Doan's Kidney Pills were immediately procured at Piper Bros., Drug Store. They again proved to be good for disorders of the kidneys. I highly recommend this excellent preparation to other kidney sufferers."

cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, States.

Life Insurance or Death Insurance—Which?

People willingly pay large sums for life insurance, which is really death insurance, but real life insurance frequently consists in taking Eckman's Alternative.
Can any "lousy sick" person afford not to take the Alternative?

It sharpens the appetite, makes life look different, brings better health with greater earning power. Often persons are so much improved that they can work even before they are fully cured.
Investigate it. If you are broad minded enough to believe that there can be a cure for Consumption, which has not been seasonably exploited, or which is not based merely on climatic or diet restrictions. Mr. Webb's report follows:— Veldon, Ill.

"Gentlemen:—During 1905, my physician sent me to Texas, from there to Colorado. I became worse and was sent home to die. I heard of Eckman's Alternative, began treatment, and was cured.
I earnestly recommend Eckman's wonderful cure for Consumption."

(Signed) ARTHUR WEBB.
Fuller details of this case upon request.
Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and

The climax of the convention will be a men's parade on Friday evening. We have the promise of 17 bands and expect 3,000 men in line, all to march to the tent. Good speakers will be there to make addresses. So come and do us good and we will do you good."

Moving-Picture Lion Hunting.
The inhabitants of Fontainebleau are protesting against some of the uses to which the picturesque forest, with its huge volcanic boulders, is being put by some of the cinematographic companies. There was a lion hunt with a real lion in the forest of Fontainebleau a few days ago, and the people who live in the neighborhood think that freedom in trade matters is being pushed somewhat too far.

—Paris Letter to London Express.

Averted Crossing Tragedy.
The prompt action of a country girl, near Fintona, County Tyrone, Ireland, was the means of averting a tragedy, not long since. A cart was proceeding over a level crossing when a passenger train was seen approaching. A girl, seeing the dangerous predicament of the occupants of the cart, ran along the railway line waving a red petticoat. The engine driver's attention was attracted, and the speed of the train was at once reduced.

THE PRIMER OF SUCCESS

Do you want a position?
Do you want a girl?
Do you want to rent your furnished room?
Do you want to sell your house?
Do you want to sell your eggs, poultry or live stock?
Have you lost anything?
Have you anything to trade?
Do you want to sell your piano?

There are many who want to do one or the other of these things. Most of them don't know how to go about it. If they could only tell the people what they want they would be all right. If they could only let the people know without disclosing their identity that might be better still.

If you want to buy, sell or secure any of the above, or if you want to trade anything, did it ever occur to you that the best thing in the world to do is to use the Classified Columns of the Mail.

Why do we give you this advice? To make business for ourselves? Certainly! To help you? Just as certainly! We are the medium between you and what you want. You just place a cent-a-word advertisement with us and we spread this advertisement before Five Thousand People Every Day. That is the market with which we bring you into touch. Isn't the advantage of being placed in touch with 5,000 people worth this insignificant sum?

Try it, and you will reap the benefit of your advertisement a thousand fold

Has One Advantage.

The fact that a politician hasn't any presidential box of his own sometimes makes it easier for him to stir up a hornet's nest for the other fellows.

Damage by Lightning.

Lightning does most damage in level, open country. A town or city, with its numerous projections and wires, is comparatively exempt.

Making Recovery an Object.

The Eskimo gives his doctor a fee as soon as he comes. If the patient recovers, it is kept; if not, it is returned.

And Then They Envy Others.

Most men do not care to pay the price of success in labor, perseverance and self-denial.

DOPESTER BUSY FOR BIG GAME

The publicity committee for the benefit playground's baseball game to be played Thursday afternoon, has originated a lot of "dope" to be turned loose previous to the momentous occasion. Part of it follows:

The Parisians breathed freely when the monster, Jack Rickey, who has so long with impunity directed the secrets of the American game from the bleachers, quit this position. Soon his proper class will be known.

It is evident that Dennis Oates will not be satisfied until he demonstrates his knowledge as a ball player.

It is reported that H. J. Booth is scouting Pittsburg today for no other purpose than to get pointers on how to appease the high ones. Of course it is just like John Jenkins to enter a protest that Booth has not been in the borough limits the required length of time.

Thomas Eagye knew quite well how painful it must be to Dr. McKay to thus early renounce the art that he had practiced to such a high degree of perfection, when a look of sadness on his face, he gently interrogated: "Is it true that Pierre Ferguson is going to carry water?"

George S. Might mingled among the fans yesterday with some strange and lonely baseball dope, pleading for sympathy and claiming that should he fail to connect with the ball Thursday it would be the fault of his eyes. The publicity committee thinks George has reached the age limit. George claims the publicity committee hasn't any business thinking.

Kerfoot Daly assures people they will be quite satisfied with his work Thursday.

DATES SET FOR POSTPONED GAMES

CURB MARKET BENEFITS SHOW SECOND DAY

of women with market baskets were seen going to and from the curb market. While all did not perhaps find everything they wanted, nor an abundant supply of some special articles desired, all seemed to be purchasers and appeared pleased with them because what they got was fresh.

President John B. Schafer of the Charleroi Business Men's Association, who has made a personal canvass among the farmers and gardeners of the community in order to induce them to bring their stuff to the curb market, urges the people to persist in their encouragement until the market is firmly established and the season is advanced enough to bring a greater variety of products. Mr. Schafer points to the fact that Charleroi's efforts and agitation for the curb market blazed the trail for other towns, which have taken the matter up and put it in successful execution. Both Washington and Donora have established a curb market, and the people of those towns are making it a matter of civic pride to patronize it and give it encouragement.

An impetus to the curb market idea has also been given in Pittsburg, where the women, who in order to reduce the high cost of living advocated a boycott on meat, have now turned their attention to a curb market. They are asking council to provide temporary quarters on Duquesne way where farmers may come in and offer their produce for sale, hoping thus to materially and poor people in getting farm and garden truck direct from the producers and therefore much cheaper. Mr. Schafer also points to the fact that from now on it will depend on the people to help establish the curb market here, and if they will only exercise patience and buy what the curb sellers have at the present time, they will develop a market that will be a great help to all, as well as to develop and stimulate farm gardening in this community which has been sadly neglected in the past.

PARK ORCHESTRA MAKES BIG HIT

Crowded houses greeted the first appearance of the famous Shady Grove Park orchestra at the Coyle Theatre last evening. The opening was at the matinee, but the big crowds came at the night performances. With five accomplished musicians under the leadership of Louis Ritzko the noted Gypsy violinist, the orchestra rendered a popular program at all the performances. They were a special attraction to the music loving people of Charleroi, and it is probable that they will draw equally as well if not better today and tomorrow when their engagement will be completed. In addition to the musical attraction a big two-reel feature film was presented at the Coyle yesterday. This was "The Midnight Marriage," a drama of absorbing human interest. The repertoire for tonight which will be supplemented by the orchestra, is "The Halfbreed's Way," "Stage-struck Mamie," and "Ireland and Israel."

DOUBLE CROSS BALLOTS THROWN OUT AS ILLEGAL

Prothonotary Contest
Decided in Favor
of Lewis

Examiner Witherspoon Hands
Down Lengthy Opinion
in the Case

Arthur R. Witherspoon, examiner in the prothonotary contest of Joseph W. Martin of California who was the Keystone-Democratic candidate for the office of prothonotary, filed his report Monday morning a voluminous document. The outcome of the contest gives Dr. Lewis a lead of 13 votes in place of 12, as shown by the official count following the election.

The principal point of contention was over the "double cross" ballots, and these the examiner following a lengthy opinion, concludes, are illegal and void and cannot be counted for Joseph W. Martin. There were 36 of the "double cross" ballots to be passed upon by the examiner. The boxes from 32 voting districts were brought in, examined and upon the contested ballots in these boxes the examiner passed fully. In these 32 districts the examination gives Lewis 1,908 votes and Martin 2,413. The examiner's report gives Martin's total vote in the county 7,754 and Lewis vote as 7,752, making Lewis' plurality 13, as against 12 as shown in the official count.

The costs in the contest are divided as follows: Petitioners' costs, which includes witness fees, etc., $168.82; respondent's costs, including the same $27.30. The general costs were as follows: Arthur R. Witherspoon, examiner, $850; John W. McDowell and H. F. Ward, clerks to the examiner, $70 each; R. G. Lutton, sheriff, bringing in the ballot boxes, etc., $75; E. E. McCutcheon, guardian of the ballot boxes, $64; William H. McEnroe, stenographer, $82 and Miss Margaret Patterson, stenographer, $142.39.

The totals are as follows: Petitioners, $168.82; respondent, $27.30, and general $1,453.51.

The contest was started in January, 32 ballot boxes were brought in and opened and examined, the respondent not bringing in any boxes of the number signified in his answer. The case was closed on the testimony about the middle of April, and since that time the examiner has been busy getting his data in shape for preparing his report.

The outcome of the contest is no surprise, the only question being the decision on the "double cross" ballots. The examiner follows the decisions of several judges throughout the state on this question.

The matter of contention with the Charleroi Water company was discussed from every angle. Last week the company started laying a "line" through North Charleroi by which it was to supply Monessen with water.

A case that it is stated is without parallel from Monongahela is expected to find its way into the county courts as a result of the devastating storm of Sunday afternoon. The trouble arises over the alleged actions of members of the city council in regard to Fourth street, Monongahela, where it is asserted heavy damages were sustained Sunday afternoon.

The street committee which is composed of William Isaac, Thomas Gregg, James DeWalt, Berhard McElhatter and Frank Underwood some time ago removed the water tables from Fourth street to Jackson street without the consent of council. The committee did this, thinking that the city would improve Fourth street on the one side while the Monongahela and Ellsworth

Summer Visiting Old

GO TO FRANCE FIRST

For a visit in the old world Mr. and Mrs. George W. Might and the latter's father John Monier will leave next week for France. Mrs. Mary Aprenche Mr. Monier's sister, and daughter Miss Jeanne of St. Etienne, France, who have been visiting in the United States for a number of months will return with the party.

The point to which the party of five will go first will be to St. Etienne. This is the former home of Mr. Monier, as well as the home of Mrs. Aprenche and her daughter. Mr. Monier will probably remain there during the greater part of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Might are planning an extensive tour throughout Europe, that will take practically all summer. They will tour France, Ireland, England, and Scotland, of the British Isles, visiting the largest cities and seeing the most noted sights. They will go to Belgium, Holland and then to Germany, where they will spend considerable time visiting along the Rhine and seeing the numerous sights. From Germany they will go to Lucerne, Switzerland and will probably climb the Alps. If there is sufficient time they will go to Venice and other old Italian cities to see some of the most noted scenes of the world.

It is not impossible that Mr. and Mrs. Might will go to Sweden also, to witness the Olympic games, and be numbered among the American enthusiasts there. These games will constitute the principal athletic event of years over the world. America has a team entered.

ANXIOUS BUYERS BUSY

Green Stuff Goes Rapidly—Farmers and Producers
Pleased

The second day of the Charleroi curb market showed a decided gain. More hucksters and gardeners appeared than on the first day. The number of patrons seemed to also be more numerous. Several wagons containing farm and garden produce were on hand, while a number of men and women with boxes and baskets of garden truck had improvised market stands on the curbs.

Just now the chief obstacle seems to be a lack of variety of produce. Lettuce and cabbages seem to be more plentiful and it would be these products if any that would constitute a surplus. In addition to these products others offered were green peas, radishes, carrots, cherries, gooseberries and currants. As it is yet early in the season, which has been backward, the available amount is rather limited.

Thus far a number of farmers have been loth to come to the curb market as some of them believe that the market will cheapen their produce and that they will get better prices selling to individuals or by huckstering them around the country. This is a matter which will regulate itself, and when the curb market is once firmly established the demand will regulate the prices in this as in everything else.

Thus far several farmers and hucksters have refrained from going to the curb market under the impression that it will take them longer to dispose of their produce than to peddle it out. The fallacy of this was shown in a single instance. One market gardener would not stop at the curb market last Saturday because, as he said, he did not want to waste time in sitting there all day, waiting for customers, so he peddled his stuff which took him until 1 o'clock to dispose of it. This morning he came rather late to town and was induced to stop at the curb market. The result was that he was all sold out and gone by 10 o'clock, where it had taken him until 1 o'clock Saturday to sell less stuff than he has this morning.

Another woman with cherries to sell this morning would not stop at the curb market, thinking it would take too long to dispose of her stock. She finally stopped at Seventh street, where many patrons of the curb market overhauled her, and in a short time bought her out. She was told that had she stopped at the curb market early this morning she would have sold out in an hour's time. The great rush for stuff is early in the morning and hucksters will not only save much time in disposing of their stuff there, but will also avoid much unnecessary work and trouble.

From early in the morning until late in the forenoon a steady stream

THE CURB MARAKET.

It is now up to the people of Char-
leROI as to whether or not the curb
market becomes an established institution of the town. The second year shows a decided gain in the number of those who have produce to sell, and the patrons seem to be also increasing.

Like all other business enterprises, the curb market must grow and be developed. The idea is a new one for the community, but there is no doubt of
its success if both parties interested
—sellers and patrons—will persist in
their efforts and exercise patience.
Because of the lack of sufficient opportunity truck farming and gardening have not been developed in this community to the extent that occasion warrants, but with the curb market firmly established there is no reason why a new impetus should not be given to this industry in the future.

Every housewife and citizen interested in the reduction of the cost of living should lend every possible encouragement to the curb market. If only patronize the curb sellers their resources will expand and in the time a greater variety of products will be offered. Just now there is not much produce available, but more will come
as the season advances. The stuff offered for sale has no advantage of being fresh, and there is no commission man's profit to pay. To establish a curb market in CharleROI will be
like casting bread upon the waters.
It will return after many days.

CORRECT MEDICAL DOPE.

and charitism, the following from the New York Sun as to how the
medical profession could serve the
public by giving correct information
through the medium of the newspapers
were they not prevented by an absurd code of so-called ethics, is most

timely. The Sun says:

"A recent article in the Medical Times discusses the medical education
of the public in an intelligent and a practical manner. The opinion is expressed that practitioners do not take
the interest in the medical education
of the public that necessity demands.
The editor, who has advocated a publicity bureau for this purpose without
success has now engaged the services
of a trained writer on subjects that
may be profitably imparted to the lay
reader. How he expects to reach
him through the columns of that
journal is not explained.

Judging from the first of these articles their publication in a popular newspaper would be serviceable. The
writer is frank in stating that one difficulty of reaching the public through
the lay press is a jealous regard for
what physicians call medical ethics.
In a refreshingly ironical vein he comments on the painful fact that a
confere who would publish a signed
article in a newspaper would arouse
suspicion of 'questionable if not quite nefarious information.' In its pursuit of accurate information on medical
news The Sun has often encountered
this singular objection of doctors to
appear in authorized interviews, which
we adopt in order to avoid the im-
position upon our readers of absurd
and sensational medical items. This unjustifiable spirit is discreditable to
a profession the members of which
are in other regards self-sacrificing
and altruistic. As a result of this exclusiveness medical information is largely derived by the public from
persons whose chief qualification is notoriety.

"A writer of sensational books decants learnedly upon dietetics; an actress noted for beauty advises on
skin troubles; a man noted for muscular prowess teaches how nervous
people may obtain relief, etc. The Medical Times avers truly that 'people have quite as much interest in
their livers and kidneys as in their
hearts and their souls' and that they
will satisfy that interest by misin-
formation if truth is not at their command. It is an error, however, to assume that 'the public health educator
never can be convincing from under
cover.' There is no reason, it would seem, why a newspaper which has
earned the confidence of its readers by its treatment of other topics, by reason of a staff versed in special subjects, may not include in its editorial
staff a competent medical man to inform them on preventing disease.

"This has been the policy of The Sun."

ELECTRIC SPARKS

What chance has an ordinary baseball game these days?

We all feel hateful at the money
getter until "we're him."

Being as popular as Roosevelt
might mean a lot of things.

There are those who can yet remember the 1907 panic with a shiver.

It is customary to hold the conven-
city.

The kind of jokes we don't believe in carrying too far is the kind that on us.

A person wouldn't think it but there is actually to be a vice president nominated.

Small boys are in favor of clubs only
when their mothers or fathers go to attend them, not when they attend to
them.

It's a good thing that the convention is being held this week, for the
joke smiths have about run out of jokes about it.

John D. says he was 30 years old
before he had accumulated a thousand dollars. He has a lot of our records beaten at that.

If Woodrow Wilson is nominated by
the Democrats it will be a vindication
of the allegation that educators never
get anywhere.

Politicians can show those knights
of the Round Table a few things they
never thought of when it comes to ar-
moring themselves.

Cunamuns is not at Chicago they say.

Probably he came to the wise conclusion that he would save money if he would stay away.

There is a well founded belief
among some that the man who spends his time trying to find out how to be broad minded never succeeds.

Uncle Joe Cannon has reached the conclusion that he couldn't be of any use at the National convention. As a lost politician Uncle Joe still knows a lot.

CharleROI folks who have been arranging for that Sunday School convention here can appreciate what it means for the Chicago people to take care of that little affair they have out there.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

In Chicago just now, as every one
knows, the interesting event of nominating a Republican candidate for President is in progress. The convention meets at noon today, and while

for the day, such a proceeding is not expected. As a matter of fact the
side lights of the great gathering
where is assembled the country's
greatest statesmen and politicians,
affords the comedy side of the convention, preparatory to the impending
struggle which promises to become
tragic before it ends—to some at least. Consequently the pressing
needs of the hour at Chicago seem to be
the personal interests of the delegates
and visitors, who for the most part
according to press dispatches seem
to be devoting their time to finding
a place to sleep.

As is well known, the city that gets
a national political convention is the one that pays the biggest guarantee Chicago, presumably, paid in the neighborhood of $100,000 for the Republican convention this year. This fund, as CharleROI people well know
by experience, is collected from merchants, hotels, saloons, business firms,
railroads and other interests. The
fund is used for expenses by the Republican national committee and if a
balance is left over it goes into the campaign chest. This is how the Republican convention came to be held in Chicago—the city offered the biggest guarantee fund.

A word or two about the charges of
the hotels. Many of the owners and managers have subscribed to the guarantee fund. They have about a week in which to reap the reward for their generosity. And do they reap?
Yes, they reap.

The price for an average room is $20 a day without food, and this whether you have one or four persons in it. The corridors of the hotels
at night when the convention is not
in session are jammed to suffocation.

Everywhere is tittle-tattle and gossip, all conversations are steeped in
politics, and you hear the politics of Hawaii and Porto Rico and the Philippines discussed in practical fashion.
If you want to know the magnitude
of the country in which you live, to
become aware of its diversified and
gigantic interests, to broaden your
mind as to the greatness of its resources, to become familiar with
many of the keenest intellects of the
nation, to grasp the reserve force of
a people in its final reckoning with
political demagogues and to become acquainted with the solid foundations
on which this republic rests, just attend either of the great national political conventions this year.

The city which secures a national convention by guaranteeing a fund
for the expenses of the national committee is usually allotted one-third of
the seats in the convention hall. The
tickets go to the subscribers in the
guarantee fund and their friends. The most valuable ticket to the greatest
opera at home or abroad does not
compare with the value the residents of the convention city put upon these
tickets. They mark social and business distinction. They are a passport to local political prominence.

The amount of rum consumed in the
hotels and clubs at a national convention is prodigious. Yet there is little or no drunkenness. It is a happy holiday for many. With the residents of the convention city it is a time for
genial and whole souled hospitality.
There are luncheons and dinners and theater parties daily and nightly. It is a time for political intrigue mingled
with genial good fellowship.

The wives and women relatives of the delegates are proud of them and
many of the men, believing themselves to be political Warwickes, have an undescribable chestiness. Yet it is unexcusable, for are they not President
makers or would-be President makers?

CharleROI Citizens Should Weigh
Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence.
Convincing evidence in CharleROI.
Is not the testimony of strangers.
But the endorsement of CharleROI

That's the kind of proof given here
The statement of a CharleROI citi-

Mrs. W. L. Evans, 104 Lookout
Ave., CharleROI, Pa., says: "Several
years ago a member of my family
complained of a dull pain in the
small of the back and difficulty with
the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills were used and proved to beneficial that when the person referred to recently began to suffer
from kidney trouble, Doan's Kidney Pills were immediately procured at
Piper Bros., Drug Store. They again
proved to be good for disorders of
the kidneys. I highly recommend

Life Insurance or Death Insurance—Which?

People willingly pay large sums for
life insurance, which is really death insurance; but real life insurance frequently
consists in taking Eckman's Alternative
to take the Alternative?
It sharpens the appetite, makes life
look different, brings better health with greater earning power. Often persons are so much improved that they can work even before they are finally cured.
Investigate it, if you are broad minded
enough to believe that there can be a
cure for Consumption, which has not been satisfactorily exploited, or which is not based merely on climatic or diet restrictions. Mr. Webb's report follows:—

"Gentlemen—During 1905, my physician sent me to Texas from there to Colorado. I became worse and was sent home to die. I heard of Eckman's Alternative, began treatment, and was cured.
I earnestly recommend Eckman's wonderful cure for Consumption."
(Signed and dated) ARTHUR WEBB.
Full details of this case upon request.
Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates
or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet
of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and the hearts of every person in your school and church.

"The best of speakers have been secured. A large tent has been put up. The conversion proper will open with a children's parade. We expect 1,500 children in line for that parade. The climax of the convention will be a men's parade on Friday evening. We have the promise of 17 bands and expect 3,000 men in line, all to march to the tent. Good speakers will be there to make addresses. So come and do us good and we will do you good."

Moving Picture Lion Hunting.
The inhabitants of Fontainebleau are protesting against some of the uses to which the picturesque forest with its huge volcanic boulders, is being put by some of the cinematographic companies. There was a lion hunt with a real lion in the forest of Fontainebleau a few days ago, and the people who live in the neighborhood think that freedom in trade matters is being pushed somewhat too far.

—Paris Letter to London Express

Averted Crossing Tragedy.
The prompt action of a country girl near Pittsburg County, T. one, Ireland, was the means of averting a tragedy, not long since. A cart was proceeding over a level crossing when a passenger train was seen approaching. A girl seeing the dangerous predicament of the occupants of the cart, ran along the railway line waving a red petticoat. The engine driver's attention was attracted and the speed of the train was at once reduced.

Publicity!

THE PRIMER OF SUCCESS

Do you want a position?
Do you want a girl?
Do you want to rent your furnished room?
Do you want to sell your house?
Do you want to sell your eggs, poultry or live stock?

Have you lost anything?
Have you anything to trade?
Do you want to sell your piano?

There are many who want to do one or the other of these things. Most of them don't know how to go about it. If they could only tell the people what they want they would be all right. If they could only let the people know without disclosing their identity that might be better still.

If you want to buy, sell or secure any of the above, or if you want to trade anything, did it ever occur to you that the best thing in the world to do is to use the Classified Columns of the Mail.

Why do we give you this advice? To make business for ourselves? Certainly! To help you? Just as certainly! We are the medium between you and what you want. You just place a cent-a-word advertisement with us and we spread this advertisement before Five Thousand People Every Day. That is the market with which we bring you into touch. Isn't the advantage of being placed in touch with 5,000 people worth this insignificant sum?

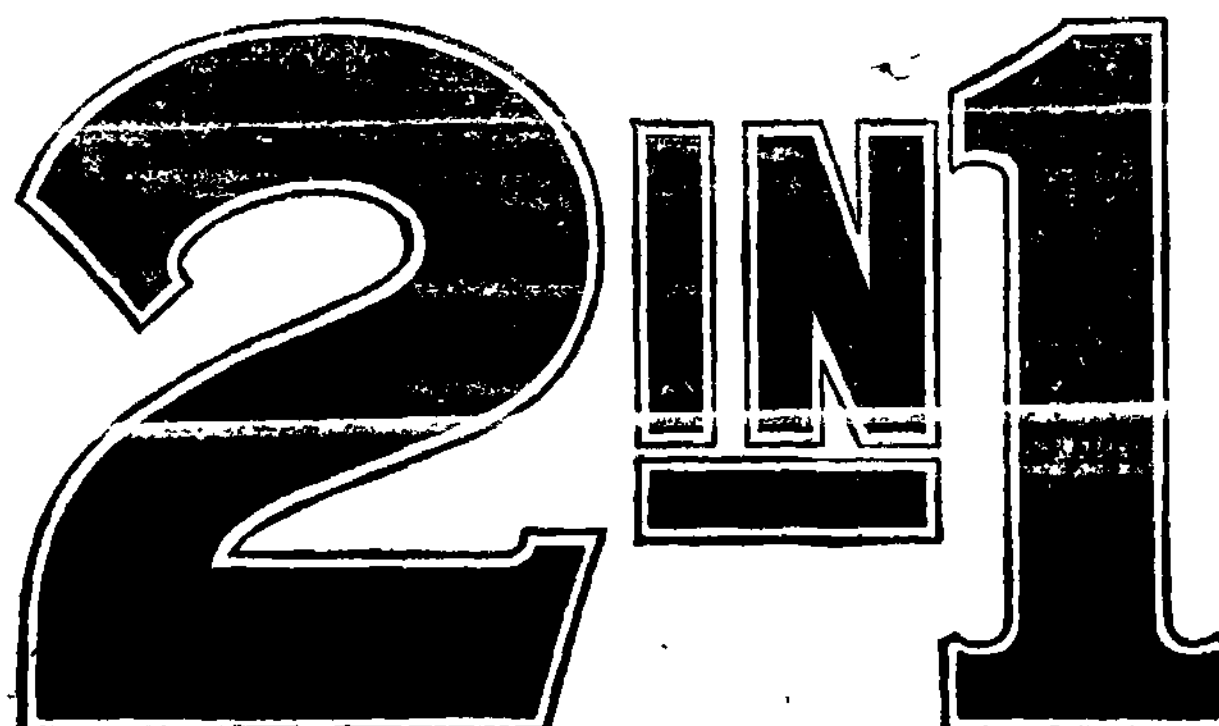

Try it, and you will reap the benefit of your advertisement a thousand fold

Has One Advantage.
The fact that a politician hasn't any personal bias of his own sometimes makes it easier for him to stir up a hornet's nest for the people following.

Damage by Lightning.
Lightning does most damage to level, open country. A town or city, with its numerous projections and wires, is comparatively exempt.

Making Recovery an Object.
The asking gives his doctor a fee as soon as he comes. If the patient recovers, it is kept; if not, it is returned.

And Then They Envy Others.
Most men do not care to pay the price of success in labor, perseverance and self-denial.

DOPESTER BUSY FOR BIG GAME

The publicity committee for the benefit playground's baseball game to be played Thursday afternoon, has originated a lot of "dope" to be turned loose previous to the momentous occasion. Part of it follows:

The Parisians breathed freely when the monster, Jack Ruckey, who has so long with impunity directed the secrets of the American game from the bleachers, quit this position. Soon his proper class will be known.

It is evident that Dennis Oates will not be satisfied until he demonstrates his knowledge as a ball player.

It is reported that H. J. Booth is scouting Pittsburg today for no other purpose than to get pointers on how to appease the high ones. Of course it is just like John Jenkins to enter a protest that Booth has not been in the borough limits the required length of time.

Thomas Eagye knew quite well how painful it must be to Dr. McKay to have been reduced to such a high degree of perfection, when a look of sadness on his face, he gently interrogated: "Is it true that Pierce Ferguson is going to carry water?"

George S. Night mingled among the fans yesterday with some strange and lonely pastime, pleading for sympathy and claiming that should he fail to connect with the ball Thursday it would be the fault of his eyes. The publicity committee thinks George has reached the age limit. George claims the publicity committee hasn't any business thinking.

of women with market baskets were seen going to and from the curb market. While all did not perhaps find everything they wanted, nor an abundant supply of some special articles desired, all seemed to be purchasers and appeared pleased with them because what they got was fresh.

President John B. Schafer of the Charleroi Business Men's Association, who has made a personal canvass among the farmers and gardeners of the community in order to induce them to bring their stuff to the curb market, urges the people to persist in their encouragement until the market is firmly established and the season is advanced enough to bring a greater variety of products. Schafer points to the fact that Charleroi's efforts and agitation for the curb market blazed the trail for other towns, which have taken the matter up and put it in successful execution. Both Washington and Donora have established a curb market, and the people of those towns are making it a matter of civic pride to patronize it and give it encouragement.

An impetus to the curb market idea has also been given in Pittsburgh, where the women, who in order to reduce the high cost of living advocated a boycott on meat, have now turned their attention to a curb market. They are asking council to provide temporary quarters on Duquesne way where farmers may come in and offer their produce for sale, hoping thus to materially and poor people in getting farm and garden truck direct from the producers and therefore much cheaper. Mr. Schafer also points to the fact that from now on it will depend on the people to help establish the curb market here, and if they will only exercise patience and buy what the curb sellers have at the present time, they will develop a market that will be a great help to all, as well as to develop and stimulate farm gardening in this community which has been sadly neglected in the past.

PARK ORCHESTRA MAKES BIG HIT

Crowded houses greeted the first appearance of the famous Shady Grove Park orchestra at the Coyle Theatre last evening. The opening was at the matinee, but the big crowds came at the night performances. With five accomplished musicians under the leadership of Louis Ritzko the noted Gypsy violinist, the orchestra rendered a popular program at all the performances. They were a special attraction to the music loving people of Charleroi, and it is probable that they will draw equally as well if not better today and tomorrow when their engagement will be completed. In addition to the musical attraction a big two-reel feature film was presented at the Coyle yesterday. This was "The Midnight Marriage," a drama of absorbing human interest. The repertoire for tonight which will be supplemented by the orchestra, is "The Half-breed's Way," "Stage-struck Mamie," and "Ireland and Israel."
